PEMS 28th Annual Convention

PEMS held its 28th Annual Convention on 06 December 2008 at the Engineering Theater, College of Engineering (Melchor Hall), UP Diliman, Quezon City. The theme of the convention was “Mutagenesis in Health and Research”. Dr. Neil Andrew D. Bascos of the National Institute of Molecular Biology and Biotechnology, UP Diliman talked on ‘Mutations and Modified Protein Functions’, Dr. Denise Noelle R. Mirano-Bascos of the same Institute talked on “Changing the Immune Response to HIV by Mutation” and Dr. Peter A. Sy of the Department of Philosophy, UP Diliman, talked on “Ethics and Research in Environmental and Molecular Mutagenesis.

The convention was very well attended with a total of 218 participants, majority of which were UP students enrolled in Bio 1. There were 23 new regular members and 7 new life members. The participants hailed from various schools and the industry, namely: UP Diliman (UPD), University of Santo Tomas (UST), St. Mary’s University (Nueva Vizcaya), St. Paul University (Tuguegarao City), Angeles University Foundation (AUF), Holy Angel University (Angeles City), Centro Escolar University (CEU), Bulacan State University (BSU), Tarlac State University (TSU), University of the Cordilleras (Baguio City), Pampanga
